September 8, 1978

Honorable Stansfield Turner

Dear Admiral Turner:

The Subcommittee on Evaluation plans to hold hearings on warning intelligence on September 20 and September 21. A schedule for the two days is attached.

As you know, the Subcommittee has been examining the warning process in considerable breadth. A principal purpose of the hearings is for the Committee to understand what actions have been taken in response to the request, forwarded to you on May 4, 1978, that the DCI establish a clear focus of responsibility for warning. The Committee is aware of the complexity of the warning process, and wishes to be informed on the progress of your actions.

Written statements should be received by September 15. Ms. Diane La Voy (225-5657) of the Subcommittee staff is available to discuss the arrangements.

Thank you for your cooperation. I anticipate that the hearings will allow for a fruitful exchange.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

Edward P. Boland
